SCHOOL BUILDING

THE Eastern Illinois State Normal School offers exceptional advantages to young men and women for practical training in preparation for teaching. It also furnishes the general training which is necessary for the pursuit of the other professions. No more favorable conditions can be found for young persons who wish to develop their abilities for useful careers.

The Faculty fully recognizes the value of healthful exercise and recreation, and encourages all forms of athletic sports in their proper relation to the work and purpose of the institution. The athletic interests of the school are under the immediate control of the Athletic Association, to membership in which every person connected with the institution is eligible. While a faculty committee acts as advisor and decides the eligibility of candidates for athletic teams, the students have the athletic organization itself entirely in their own hands.

Information as to entrance, courses of study, expenses, etc., may be had by addressing

PRESIDENT L. C. LORD,

Charleston, Illinois.

PEMBERTON HALL.

This building was erected for the women students at a cost of one hundred thousand dollars. It contains single and double rooms and accommodates about one hundred women. Every room is completely furnished, containing bed, bed linen, towels, hot and cold water, electric lights, rugs, chairs, dresser, students' desk and full length mirror. A large hospital room is furnished on the fourth floor. On each floor are bath rooms equipped with both tub and shower baths. The large dining room, living room, reception and guests' rooms are on the first floor. The hall is presided over by a matron. Board and room in this building costs four dollars per week. Almost twenty five young men can take their meals here.

The Gymnasium, which adjoins the hall, is used for physical exercise by both men and women at separate hours, under the supervision of competent physical directors.
