

Bulldog runners post top finishes in M-S Invitational

GARRETT HALM/Mahomet Citizen

OFF AND RUNNING — The Bulldog's Brandon Balazi competes as the team prepares for the Corn Belt Conference meet Saturday at Prairie Central.

MAHOMET — The Mahomet-Seymour High School Boys and Girls Cross Country teams both posted top five overall finishes in last weekend's Bulldog Invitational.

Julie Jarrett finished fifth overall to lead the Bulldog Girls squad to a fourth place overall finish in the meet which was won by Rochester. Jarrett ran the course in 19:11.

Abby May came home in the 10th overall spot with a run of 19:42.

Sandwiched between Rochester and M-S in the final overall standings were Decatur St. Teresa and Normal U-High.

On the Boys' side, Justin Sebens posted a time of 16:21, good for 11th place overall as the team finished fifth in the meet.

Perennial cross country power Danville Schlarman captured the overall meet with 36 points, easily outdistancing Cumberland for the title. Rochester and Normal U-High were next, followed by Mahomet-Seymour.

In addition to Sebens, other top finishers for the Bulldogs were Patrick Kirwan (22nd) and Troy Pittman (27th).