

Girl's cross country take win, boy's finish fourth

By SAL NUDO
The Mahomet Citizen

The girl's cross country team again took team honors, this time on Oct. 15 at the Corn Belt Conference meet in Eureka.

Mahomet-Seymour's team score was 28, followed by host Eureka (57), Normal University High (66), Olympia (123), Bloomington Central Catholic (136) and Pontiac (151).

M-S freshman Amy

Clawson finished second overall at Eureka. Also garnering top-ten finishes for the Bulldogs were Josi Parker, Jennifer Fall, Sarah Forbes and freshman Jessica Butcher.

Neal Garrison's boy's team finished in fourth place at the same meet, led individually by junior Troy Pittman who finished fourth, followed by junior Justin Sebens in seventh place.

Both the boys and girls teams begin regional competition on Oct. 22.