and finished fourth for the Bulldogs. Junior Troy Pitman finished in twelfth place overall with a time of 16:26. Garrison said his team's performance at the M-S Invitational was excellent, especially considering the Mahomet course is not the fastest one in the world. Out of Mahomet's 28 runners, 25 finished with either personal best times or second-best times. Senior Jonathan Hunter improved upon his personal best time of the year by 43 seconds at Saturday's meet, James Scherer by 47 seconds, Jared Kingry by 43 seconds and Joe Logan by 46 seconds. Garrison said he's looking forward to a strong performance from his team at the Corn Belt Conference meet on Saturday, where the Bulldogs have not finished higher than third in recent years.

Similarly, the team goal is to finish higher than third place at regionals, a position the team has not been in since joining Class 2A.
