

In boys' cross-country:

At Springfield. With three runners in the top 24, the Centennial boys' cross-country team placed third in the 20-team Lanphier Invitational.

The Chargers scored 138 points, trailing winner Rockford Guilford by 57.

Luke Penner of Centennial placed 12th in 16 minutes, 43 seconds. Dan Rolando (16:47) and Matt Kurley (17:11) were 15th and 24, respectively, for the Chargers.

Troy Pittman led Mahomet-Seymour to a ninth-place finish, crossing the finish line 22nd in 17:06.

Mike Kesler was the top runner for 15th-place Champaign Central, placing 28th in 17:19.