

Athletes of the Week

Luke Clapp
Tri-County, football
Sophomore

Recently: Accounted for every point in his team's playoff win against Arcola, including a touchdown and two-point conversion run in overtime. He finished with 123 yards and three TDs.

Your coach (Adam) is your older brother. Can you beat him up? Probably not. He's 27, I'm 15.
I need concert tickets to ... T.I.

I'm dying to see ... "Unstoppable."

I'm always texting ... my girlfriend, Kayli Seaman.

I'm driving ... just my parents' car (with a permit). I don't have my license yet.

Before I compete, I eat ... whatever the parents cook. I like pulled pork.

A perfect Saturday night would be ... playing a football game.

In 10 years ... I'll hopefully be doing something in the medical field.

Honorable mention: Albert Anastasio, Urbana Uni High cross-country; T.J. Blake, Tri-County football; Zeke Elkins, St. Joseph-Ogden cross-country; Ryland Fluhr, Salt Fork football; J.J. Gardner, Gibson City-Melvin-Sibley football; Jacob Helfrich, St. Thomas More cross-country; Justin March, Danville football; Lucas Prather, Mahomet-Seymour cross-country; Steve Schroeder, Monticello cross-country; Cody Shelmadine, Tuscola football; Austin Trease, LeRoy football; Tony Van Gundy, Arcola football; John Vetter, St. Thomas More football; Scott Woodard, Unity cross-country