

XC teams compete in Peoria

Daniel Chamness/For the Mahomet Citizen

Daniel Chamness/For the Mahomet Citizen

Left: Jackson Powell cracked the top 50 at the Richard Spring Invitational. The outing, which was held at Detwiler Park in Peoria, which also hosts the state final every year, featured over 65 teams in each race.

Powell finished the three-mile course in 15 minutes, 24 seconds, which was good for 47th place. He was the second finisher to cross for Mahomet-Seymour.

Far left: Kyle Appelquist works his way to the finish line at the Richard Spring Invitational, which was held at Detwiler Park in Peoria.

The Mahomet-Seymour harrier finished the race in 16 minutes, 46 seconds, which was good for 257th overall. A total of 567 runners were in the boys varsity race.

See page 9 for more on the Peoria meet.