

Athletes of the Week

Nov 6,
2013

Jon Davis

Oakwood/Armstrong-Potomac, cross-country
Sophomore

Recently: Won the individual sectional championship at Decatur, with the fastest Class 1A time (14 minutes, 46 seconds) from the state's five sectionals.

Heather Coit/The News-Gazette

In his own words: "I'd like to get under 14:30 and hopefully be a state champion. There's a chance. I have to start with putting in another hard week of practice."

I'm driving ... a '94 Jeep Cherokee.

I need tickets to ... a Bears game.

Jay Cutler is ... awesome.

My favorite athlete is ... Michael Jordan.

Before a race, I'm listening to ... heavy metal.

After a race, I'm eating ... steak.

I'm winning the Illinois Marathon ... next year.

In five years ... I want to be running in college.

I sent my last text to ... my mom.

My first job ... McDonald's in Oakwood

Oakwood High is ... awesome.

Honorable mention: Mo Abbed, Bismarck-Hening football; Cully Day, Mahomet-Seymour football; Saul Downie, Urbana soccer; Jordan Feagin, Arthur-Lovington/Atwood-Hammond football; Jesse Galaway, Monticello cross-country; Dylan Knisley, Monticello football; Johnny Leverenz, Danville cross-country; Jake Pence, St. Joseph-Ogden football; Nick Poff, St. Joseph-Ogden cross-country; Colton Reed, Unity football; Austin Wenskunas, Argenta-Oreana football; William Wolf, Mahomet-Seymour cross-country; Jay Woods, Cerro Gordo/DeLand-Weldon/Bement football