

SPORTS

Bulldogs finish strong in weekend IHSA and Cornbelt action

by Dani Tietz • October 20, 2014 • 0 Comments

MSHS Boys' Cross Country

The Mahomet-Seymour Bulldogs won the Cornbelt Conference meet for the second year in a row Saturday.

Alex Keeble, William Wolf, Jack Hyde, Ben Crow, Brian Butcher, Andrew Walmer and Trevor Hanlon all placed in the top ten, earning seven of the possible 10 All-Conference honors.

The Bulldogs also had eight of the top 10 finishers in the open race including Riley Fortune, Jackson Powell, Joey Magyar, Ryan Hodge, Mason McAnally, Callan Whitehouse, Gabe Pommier and Joe Churm.

Mahomet-Seymour is currently ranked second in the State and in the top 50 teams in the nation. Alex Keeble is currently ranked in the top 50 individuals in the nation.

MSHS Girls' Cross Country

With six of the seven varsity runners running lifetime bests at the Cornbelt

