#1 Neuqua Valley came into the meet with one mission: complete the task of winning the race and get home healthy and sound. Coach Paul Vandersteen welcomed back several veterans in their first race which went well despite not really needing them now. Three Wildcat seniors: Josh Mollway, Jackson Jett, and Jake Mceneaney all placed in the top 10. Perhaps more impressive than their feat

WHAT TO

The other #1 as in top ranked Mahomet-Seymour from the 2A classification ran well also. The Bulldogs finally got to display themselves to the masses and they did not disappoint. They beat many quality 3A schools and put one over #2 Normal University who ran at Detweiller for the second straight weekend. Though Normal U High ran several of its top runners in the frosh division, it would have been very doubtful they would have beaten Mahomet-Seymour. The Bulldogs tough 20 second scoring split was able to net themselves 118 points.
