MSHS Cross Country

MSHS won the 21-team East Peoria Invitational Saturday.

The Bulldogs continue to be ranked number 1 in the State AA division, and after a strong season, are ranked number 22 in the Nation by MileSplit.com.

Andrew Walmer was named the meet Champion and Gabe Pommier was the runner-up in the Varsity race. The Bulldogs also took the top six spots with Riley Fortune, Ryan Hodge, Brian Butcher and Ben Crow.

Mathias Powell was the meet champion in the Fresh/Soph race. Bryson Keeble placed third and Kolean Davis placed fourth.

MSHS Football

Mahomet-Seymour grabbed their third win of the season as they defeated Illinois Valley Central 14-7 Friday.

After a scoreless first half, Dann-e caught an 11-yard pass from Connor Thomas to put the Bulldogs up 7-0. Tristan Lever helped the Bulldogs pull ahead 14-7 with a 29-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter.

MSHS Soccer

Urbana scored twice in the first half, then once in the second to defeat the Bulldogs 3-2. Jarrett Brunner assisted by Evan Lundstrom scored first for MSHS in the second. Then Lundstrom assisted Trevor Burgess.
