

sports

MSHS Boys' Cross Country moves up in the milesplit.com National Poll

1 week ago

1 Comment

Written by Dani Tietz

MSHS Boys' Cross Country

The Mahomet-Seymour boys' cross country team did not race over the October 1st weekend, but their national ranking was bumped up to #15 by milesplit.com.

The team travels to the Metamora Invitational on October 8.

MSJHS Cross Country

The MSJH XC team traveled to Lodge Park for the 14 team Monticello Invitational on October 1. The team celebrated the 8th grade runners, but due to injuries, standouts Maddi Claybrooke and Olivia Bunting, Elizabeth Sims, a 7th grade athlete ran in their place.

The team will run in their post-season competition at Lake of the Woods on October 8.

BOYS RACE RESULTS

Boys' Varsity- top 3 teams out of 14

1st- Mt. Zion (84)

2nd- MSJH (87)

3rd- Monticello (91)

Varsity Individual Results- placing in the top 20 out of 96

11th- Matthew Sims (12:16)

16th- Caleb Dowers

20th- Nick Mies

Open Individual Results- placing in the top 20 out of 203

1st- RACE CHAMP- Anthony Ramirez (12:30)

2nd- Kyle Nofziger

3rd- Justin Straub

6th- Taylor Fan

10th- Gabe Difanis

12th- Blake Oleson

16th- Avery Seaman

GIRLS RACE RESULTS

Girls' Varsity- 6th out of 13 full teams

Girls Varsity- top 20 out of 94

2nd- Elizabeth Sims (12:38)

Girls Open- top 20 out of 203

3rd- Klein Powell (13:15)

4th- Grace Lietz

8th- Delaney King