At Charleston. Mahomet-Seymour's Kyle Nofziger and Taylor Fan notched third and fourth place, respectively, in the Charleston Invitational to direct the Bulldogs to first place out of 13 programs. Nofziger finished his 3 miles in 15 minutes, 57.92 seconds, and Fan ended his race in 16:44.58. M-S athlete Hayden Grotelueschen also cracked the top 10 individually, rating 10th in 17:06.87. St. Joseph-Ogden snatched third place in the team ranks thanks largely to Brandon Mattsey (fifth, 16:45.94), Carson Maroon (sixth, 16:54.10) and Elijah Mock (ninth, 17:01.81). Centennial's Aaron Hendron also ran into the top 10 individually with a sixth-place clocking of 16:50.25.

At Chrisman. Three Arthur-Lovington-Atwood-Hammond athletes finished inside the top seven to guide the Knights to first place as a team out of 19 scoring programs in the Chrisman Cow Chip Classic. Layton Hall's runner-up effort of 15 minutes, 43.1 seconds across 3 miles was backed by teammates Logan Beckmier and Lyle Adcock placing fourth and seventh, respectively, with times of 16:28 and 17:20. Paxton-Buckley-Loda finished outside the top five as a team but claimed the winning runner as Ryder James posted a time of 15:33. Tuscola ranked second as a unit, led by Josiah Hortin (10th, 17:32.2) and Logan Wallace (14th, 17:51.8). Monticello was the No. 3 squad behind Shawn Derby (sixth, 17:12.7) and Joey Wenke (ninth, 17:31). Other local runners who wound up inside the top 10 individually were Bismarck-Henning/Rossville-Alvin's Eli Mojonier (third, 16:23.5), Iroquois West's Connor Price (fifth, 17:03.8) and Uni High's Henry Laufenberg (eighth, 17:24.6).

At Peoria. Champaign Central snared three of the top four positions in a triangular at Donovan Park, ultimately coming out with a 17-58-65 team win over Peoria Notre Dame and Rock Island Alleman. Central's Alex Ahmari and Peter Smith led the Maroons and finished first and second overall in the race with 5-kilometer times of 18 minutes, 25.52 seconds and 18:32.77, respectively. Central's Cooper Sweet ranked fourth with a time of 19:07.95.
