

EMILO LUNGH I

EMILO LUNGHI, the great Italian runner who ran under the colors of the Irish-American Athletic Club while in this country, established several new records that undoubtedly will stand for some time.

At the Canadian championship, held at Montreal, Lunghi broke the half-mile record of 1 minute 53 2-5 seconds formerly held by C. H. Kilpatrick, made in 1895, the new figures for the distance being 1 minute 52 4-5 seconds.

Lunghi also established new figures for 700 yards and also for two-thirds of a mile, the time for the former being 1 minute 27 2-5 seconds, and for the latter 2 minutes 45 3-5 seconds.

At the Olympic games, held at London in 1908, Lunghi ran second to Sheppard in the 800 meter run, forcing the latter to break the existing record.
