

Senior Quarterback Joe Kenney connected on 139 yards passing, hitting Senior Andy Livingston and Junior Scott Metzger for an additional two touchdowns. Junior Kicker Matthew Prather also added three points to the Bulldog total, connecting on three field goals Friday night.

MSHS Girls' Cross Country

MSHS Girls' Cross Country finished third overall at the Springfield Invitational Saturday. The Bulldogs finished one place higher than last year and only 12 points behind first place this year.

Lauren Whitehouse led the pack, finishing at 18:29. She was followed by teammate Jenna Straub, who took 13th place at 20:31.

"This was a much improved effort overall, and it is always great to have the overall race winner," Head Coach Bonnie Moxley said. "Lauren looked spectacular and our JV team won big, too. This group is working hard and lots of fun, as well."

Devon Kreps and Samira Kassem placed sixth and seventh in the JV race, finishing 22:09 and 22:24, respectively. The JV team took first place in their division.

MSHS Volleyball

Mahomet-Seymour won their pool in the Bulldog Invitational Saturday, defeating Rantoul (25-9, 25-16), Charleston (25-20, 27-25) and Manteno (25-17, 25-21). The Bulldogs then fell to Tri-Valley (25-17, 25-14) during Championship Bracket play, but defeated Pleasant Plains (25-19, 20-25, 15-11), finishing third overall.

The Bulldogs were led by Mason Moore, who had 119 assists, 17 digs and three aces during the day. Moore was joined on the All-Tournament team by Cortney Bohn who had 14 kills and 2 blocks. Sophia Christianson also added 9 aces and 18 kills.

MSJHS Cross Country

The MSJHS Cross Country team placed fifth in the boys' division and 18th in the girls division as they raced at Parkside on Saturday.

"Nearly every runner ran a personal best for the season, and many (ran) a lifetime best," Head Coach Lisa Martin said.

Out of 305 runners, Kaelen Davis placed 12th, running 11:08. He was followed by Bryson Keeble who placed 13th and Mathias Powell who placed 18th. Madison
