

Andrew Hanselman

Monticello, cross-country

Senior

Recently: Dominated the Okaw Valley Conference meet, winning by 14 seconds (15 minutes, 44 seconds).

In his own words: "It was a good race. I would say I am peaking. That was the fastest time I've ever run at home, Healthwise, fitnesswise, I'm where I want to be at."

I'm driving ... a Ford Explorer.

I'm dying to see ... I liked "Taken," but "Taken 2" hasn't got the greatest reviews. I still want to see it.

I'm always texting ... my good friends, buds I've known since grade school.

I need concert tickets to ... The Illumineers or Mumford & Sons.

Next year ... I'm applying to Michigan, Purdue and Illinois. They are my top choices.

In five years ... I'm going to major in computer engineering

Favorite prerace meal ... Some sort of pasta

Afterward ... A sandwich

Monticello High ... is an extraordinary location to find out who you are and what you can do
