

Athletes of the Week

Jonathan Schaap
Mahomet-Seymour, Junior
Cross-country

Recently: Was his team's top finisher as the Bulldogs, up to fourth in the Class 2A rankings, won the 17-school East Peoria Invitational

In his own words: "It's nice to be having success. Hopefully we'll make it to state."

I'm always texting ... my church friends at the Vineyard

I need concert tickets to ... Brad Paisley

I'm driving ... 2002 Pontiac Sunfire

My first job was ... detassling

My favorite course is ... in Peoria

In 10 years I'll be ... living in southern Utah, mountain biking and running a lot

Are you winning the 2012 Illinois Marathon?

I am not

Mahomet-Seymour is ... a fun school with good teachers and coaches

My longest run was ... a 15-miler at Lake of Woods

Honorable mention: Nick Berger, Judah Christian golf; Ben Brumett, Hoopeston Area/Bismarck-Henning soccer; John Butcher, Mahomet-Seymour cross-country; T.J. Clapp, Tri-County football; Ryan Donohue, Monticello football; Blas Garcia-Canga, Centennial cross-country; Nick Hess, St. Thomas More cross-country; Robbie Irvin, Hoopeston Area football; Cameron Mammen, Urbana football; Billy Nixon, Monticello soccer; Ryan Reitmeier, Unity soccer; Scott Woodard, Unity cross-country; Luke Zocher, Monticello cross-country