

Jonathan Schaap

Mahomet-Seymour, Senior

Cross-country

Recently: Won Saturday's Lee Halberg Invitational in Springfield by more than 2½ seconds. His 3-mile time of 15 minutes, 24 seconds was the area's best this season.

In his own words: "I put in a lot of miles over the summer, about 70 a week."

My favorite place to run is ... Lake of the Woods.

My favorite prerace meal is ... oatmeal and coffee.

My favorite postrace meal is ... McDonald's.

I'm always texting ... my cross-country friends.

I need concert tickets to ... Brad Paisley.

I'm driving a ... 2002 Pontiac Sunfire.

In five years ... hopefully I'll be finishing up with a degree in criminal justice.

My first job was ... detasseling.

Mahomet-Seymour is ... all the teachers make the classes fun.

Honorable mention: Andy Bott, Bismarck-Henning golf; Andrew Hanselman, Monticello cross-country; Nick Hedges, Salt Fork football; Jacob Helfrich, St. Thomas More cross-country; Chase Henry, Westville golf; Nick Hess, St. Thomas More cross-country; Anthony Hettinger, Arthur-Lovington soccer; Johnny Leverenz, Danville cross-country; Brian Lopez, Urbana soccer; Cameron Mammen, Urbana football; Mitch Negangard, Unity football; Trent Sherfield, Danville football; Michael Thompson, Urbana golf; Dalton Walsh, St. Joseph-Ogden football