

W. J. KRAMER

32

W. J. KRAMER, of the Acorn Athletic Association, is to-day the best cross country runner in America.

Kramer won the National A. A. U. Cross Country Championship at Celtic Park last November, defeating a large and classy field. Only a week previous to this he annexed the title of Junior National Cross Country Champion over the same course.

Kramer won the Metropolitan Junior Cross Country Championship in February, 1909, and won the Metropolitan Senior Cross Country Championship at Passaic in April, 1910.
